Of Defective Vision

Many persons have the idea that defective vision manifests itself only in a failure or inability to see clearly, but itching, burning, smarting of the lids, dull pains in the eyes or head, even the back of the head, all come from irregularities in the optical construction of the eyes and may be entirely relieved by correctly fitted glasses.

DR. J. T. JOHNSON guarantees to correct every case that he undertakes. If your eyes are giving annoyance consult him at once.

A MUNICIPAL INSTITUTION.

Some Resolutions Passed at Last Night's Mass Meeting.

THE DISPENSARY LAW AS PASSED

The Untiring Efforts of the Central Committee and the Loyalty of Our Representatives Commended.

The time for speech-making being over, the victory won, and all present at the court house last night were evidently satisfied with the result, there was no exultation or unseemly show of rejoicing. The meeting was called to pass some resolutions, to hear the dispensary law read and to wind up some business affairs connected with the central committee's work. Mr. W. E. Bevil was chosen as chairman and Mr. A. W. McAllister made a few remarks and read the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, the contest for the establishment of a dispensary in Greensboro has been brought to a successful issue, be it resolved,

1st. That it is the sense of this meeting, that it is the duty of all good citizens to ally as much as possible any ill feeling that may have been engendered in the heat of the contest.

2nd. That now that the dispensary has become a municipal institution, it behooves all citizens for the good of public morals, and for the good name and reputation of our progressive city to give their influence to the success of the dispensary and to frown upon any attempt to hinder its successful workings, to degrade it or to bring it into disrepute.

3rd. That all our citizens should forget past differences of opinion, and should remember that we are all friends and neighbors, and have a common interest in the advancement of the city's progress, and that we should exert our energies and influence to the rebuilding of the city.

Mr. R. W. Brooks then offered the following resolution, which was also unanimously adopted:

"Be it resolved, that we extend our thanks to our senator and representatives in the general assembly for their loyal support in securing the passage of the dispensary bill, and that we commend them for the equitable plan which they adopted for ascertaining the will of the white voters of Greensboro; and we also desire to express our appreciation of the assistance given by senators and representatives from other counties in making the dispensary bill a law."

The following paper was read by Mr. C. H. Dorsett, and unanimously adopted:

"Resolved that it is the sense of this meeting that special recognition is due the Greensboro Evening Telegram for its staunch advocacy of the dispensary and the very valuable service rendered; and that we are also grateful to the Daily Record for the generous use we have been allowed to make of its columns."

The committee appointed to audit the accounts of the central committee made a report, to which they appended the following paragraph, which was heartily concurred in by the meeting:

"We also find that the central committee have borne all their individual expenses themselves in their several trips to Raleigh, &c. In view of the time and attention these gentlemen have devoted to this matter we think and would recommend that all their expenses be paid; and that they are due the sincere and hearty thanks of all friends of this dispensary movement for their untiring and efficient efforts."

The members of the central committee being present generously and unselfishly declined to accept the provisions of the above recommendation so far as it relates to their expenses. Hon. A. M. Seales read the dispensary law as passed, and said when he reached that part of the bill providing for "the mile limit," that he regretted to say anything that might have the appearance of being controversial, but he felt constrained to take this opportunity to positively deny the statement which has been circulated on the streets within the last few days to the effect that "the mile limit" was secured by bad faith and that there was an agreement with the opposition in reference to it. He recited the colloquy before the joint legislative committee between members of the dispensary delegation and Senator Wilson, explained that in a subsequent interview with Senator Wilson it was arranged upon certain conditions not to disturb "the mile limit" clause in the bill. He called attention to the fact that at the last two legislative hearings, the opposition had claimed that they had not been consulted and had had no part in what had been done, and contrasted this with the recent trumped up charge of an agreement with them as to "the mile limit."

He stated that the bill as enacted into law was identical with the bill as published before and as voted upon at the primary with the exception of the single change as to the publicity of the dispensary register, which was made at the earnest solicitation of our senator and representatives. He concluded by saying that there was an agreement with them of any kind or any bad faith was ridiculous and absolutely unfounded and that none were better aware of this than those who are responsible for it.

gle change as to the publicity of the dispensary register, which was made at the earnest solicitation of our senator and representatives. He concluded by saying that there was an agreement with them of any kind or any bad faith was ridiculous and absolutely unfounded and that none were better aware of this than those who are responsible for it.

THE DISPENSARY LAW.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. That it shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to sell, barter or exchange any spirituous, vinous, malt or intoxicating liquors, of any kind, in the city of Greensboro or within one mile of the city limits, except as hereinafter provided; and anyone violating this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction, shall be fined a sum not less than one hundred dollars, or imprisoned, not less than six months, or both.

Sec. 2. The said dispensary commissioners before the entering upon the duties of their office, shall make oath that they will well and truly carry out to the best of their ability all of the provisions of this act; and the resident judge of the district may remove any of said commissioners when it shall be made to appear that he has violated his oath or been guilty of malfeasance; and the said dispensary commissioners shall serve without pay or remuneration of any kind. Provided, the said board shall elect one of its members as chairman and one as treasurer, and may allow the treasurer such compensation as they may see fit, and said treasurer shall give bond, payable to the city of Greensboro, conditioned upon a proper accounting for the moneys that may come into his hands as such treasurer, in a sum not less than five thousand dollars, to be fixed by said dispensary board; Provided, said bond shall never be less than the amount of money in the hands of the treasurer. The said manager shall be required to give bond, payable to the city of Greensboro, in such sum as the dispensary board may determine, not less than one thousand dollars, conditioned upon the proper accounting for all the moneys that may come into his hands as such manager and for the faithful performance of the duties of his office as manager, as prescribed in this act and in the rules and regulations of said dispensary board, and the said manager shall receive such salary or compensation as may be fixed by said dispensary board, which, however, shall never depend upon the amount of sales. The said board may likewise require bonds, payable as aforesaid, and in such amounts as they may deem proper, from such clerks or assistants as they may employ.

Sec. 4. The said dispensary board shall have power to employ attorneys, agents and detectives to assist in the detection and prosecution of persons, firms or corporations violating this act, and for other purposes; may employ chemists or other competent persons to test liquors may borrow money, and shall have power to do all other proper things not contrary to law to carry out the true intent of this act.

Sec. 5. For the purpose of procuring the necessary funds for the establishment of said dispensary, the board of aldermen of the city of Greensboro shall appropriate such an amount, not exceeding two thousand dollars, as may be demanded by said dispensary board, and said amount shall be repaid out of the profits arising from said dispensary. Provided, said dispensary board may establish said dispensary without receiving said appropriation. The manager of said dispensary shall on Monday of each week pay to the treasurer of said dispensary board all moneys which he may hold as said manager, and shall keep a strict account of all liquors received by him, the amount sold and the amount on hand, and the said treasurer shall hold and disburse all the funds belonging to said dispensary and after paying expenses and after reserving such a sum as the dispensary board may deem necessary to carry on the dispensary, shall, on the first day of January and on the first day of July of each and every year pay over twenty per cent. of the profits of the said dispensary to the treasurer of Guilford county and eighty per cent. of said profits to the treasurer of the city of Greensboro.

Sec. 6. The manager of said dispensary shall, under the supervision of said dispensary board, purchase all liquors necessary and proper for said dispensary, and may purchase such pure liquors as may be in the hands of the liquor dealers in the city of Greensboro. Provided, said dispensary board shall refuse to pay for all liquor found not to be pure.

Sec. 7. No liquor of any kind shall be sold in said dispensary on Sunday or election days, and said dispensary shall never be open, or liquors sold therein, before sunrise nor after sunset on any day. The prices at which said liquor shall be sold shall be fixed by said dispensary board. Provided, all sales shall be for cash and at a profit not exceeding eighty per cent. of the cost thereof. No liquors shall be sold in said dispensary except in unbroken packages, or bottles, which shall contain not less than one-half pint and not more than one quart; and it shall be unlawful for said manager, or any other person, to open any such package or bottle on the premises, and the said manager shall not allow loading or loitering or drinking on the premises, and any person drinking liquors on the said premises, and any person refusing or failing to leave the said premises after being ordered to do so by the said manager, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and fined not more than fifty dollars or imprisoned not more than thirty days.

Sec. 8. Before selling or delivering any intoxicating liquors to any person, an application must be presented to the manager, or his clerk or assistant, printed or written in ink, stating the kind, quantity and price of liquor wanted, dated of the true date and with his or her true name signed thereto, and the manager shall keep a book for this purpose. Provided, that said book shall be open only to the inspection of the dispensary board and its employees, and the contents thereof shall not be published. If any person shall make any false or fictitious signature, or sign any name other than his own to any application or make any false statement on any request or application he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. No intoxicating liquors shall be sold to any minor, intoxicated person or habitual drunkard, and the dispensary board shall make such rules and regulations, not inconsistent with this act, as may be proper for the management of the dispensary.

Sec. 9. If the manager or clerks shall procure any intoxicating liquor from any person other than those that the dispensary board shall direct, and offer the same for sale, or shall adulterate or cause to be adulterated any intoxicating, spirituous, vinous or malt liquors by mixing with coloring matter or any drug or ingredient whatever, or shall mix the same with water or with other liquors of different kind or quality, or shall make a false entry in any book or return required by this act, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 10. Every person who shall, directly or indirectly, keep or maintain by himself or by associating or combining with others, or who shall in any manner aid, assist or abet in keeping or maintaining any club room or other place in which intoxicating liquors are received or kept for barter or for distribution or for division among the members of any club or association by any means whatever, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 11. All books required to be kept by the manager of said dispensary, except the one provided for in section eight, shall be open to the inspection of the public, and any person, firm or corporation violating any of the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined in a sum not less than one hundred dollars and imprisoned not less than three months, or both, except where penalty is otherwise provided.

Sec. 12. That all laws and clauses of laws in conflict with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed. Provided, that this act shall not be construed so as to repeal any prohibitory laws already in force; and section 1141 of The Code shall not apply to this act.

Sec. 13. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification. In the general assembly read three times and ratified this 5th day of February, A. D., 1899.

FIFTY-FIFTH CONGRESS ENDS

After a Chaotic and Continuous All-Night Session.

PRESIDENT VISITS THE HOUSE

The Congress Just Closed Passed a Larger Number of Bills Than Any Preceding Term.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Mar. 4.—The fifty-fifth congress came to an end at noon after a chaotic all-night session. When day broke tired and haggard faces were seen in both houses. Few members had had any sleep. At ten o'clock today the president went to the capitol and saw the last house legislative session through. The present house passed 1,635 bills and resolutions, 1,200 in the 54th; 951 in the 53rd and 892 in the 52nd.

The house adjourned—actual time—at 12:25. The members joined in singing "My Country" before they adjourned. The senate adjourned at 12:08.

The Hawaiian cable amendment was lost. The navy appropriation bill is now a law, and carries in it the original house provisions for three battleships, three armored cruisers and six protected cruisers instead of six in all as it passed the senate.

A HORRIBLE DEATH.

Cyrus Young Instantly Killed By No. 36 Today.

Cyrus Young, a colored man 38 years old was killed by number 36 the northbound fast mail on the southern, which came in at 12:15 o'clock today. When the accident happened Young was walking across the trestle, where the Southern passes over the Atlantic & Yadkin. A train was passing under him on the A. & Y., and he was looking down at this. No. 36 was seven minutes late and was running at a good speed when it struck Young. He was knocked off the trestle and fell to the ground fully seventy-five feet away, dead. Almost every bone in his body was broken; both legs were snapped just above the ankles and his right side and shoulder on which he fell, were crushed. His head was also badly bruised.

Coroner Turner was summoned and reached the scene about 1 o'clock; he ordered the body removed to the station where an inquest was held.

Peter Sceray, colored, was walking a few yards away and saw the train strike Young. He says that neither bell nor whistle gave the alarm, but thinks this is due to the fact that Young was rendered invisible by steam from a train on the A. & Y. Both engineer and fireman of 36 were unaware of the accident, and when told, at the station that the train had killed a man, they were sadly surprised.

The dead man leaves a wife and several children. His wife says that she is positive he was not drinking, as he had been at home all day. He had started up town and was but a short distance from home when killed.

The News Today.

We yield much of our news space today to the report of last night's meeting, and the dispensary law. There was only one or two slight alterations in the bill as last printed, but it is due the public that they be allowed to read the law as it stands. Much of our telegraphic news is therefore crowded out.

Attractive Advertisement.

Quite a novel and attractive advertisement is on exhibition at Mr. Howard Gardner's drug store, on the corner opposite the postoffice. It advertises Gardner's Extract Sarsaparilla. A pyramid is built of packages of the medicine, and on the top is a beam, on which is painted in gold letters: "Worth its weight in gold." From each end of the beam swings a balance. One contains a bottle of the sarsaparilla and the other one, four large nuggets, which exactly balance the bottle. Everybody should call at the drug store and see this attraction, and if their blood is impure, they should use some of Gardner's Extract Sarsaparilla.

WHAT WAS THE TROUBLE?

In congratulating the good people of Greensboro upon their victory the Standard would like to learn the secret of their success. It confesses itself a little puzzled in comparing the defeated movement in Mecklenburg with the victorious one in Guilford. Greensboro went to Raleigh with a petition of some 800 names. Charlotte had one of 3,200. The counter petition from Greensboro was fraudulent. So was the one from Charlotte. One of its attorneys declared that it contained 2,750 names. By actual count this number was reduced to 2,429, and then 500 more names were taken off by comparison with the registration books. Greensboro had an enthusiastic mass-meeting. So had Charlotte. Greensboro sent a large delegation to Raleigh. Charlotte sent a larger. Yet the same senatorial committee reported the Greensboro bill favorably and the Charlotte one unfavorably. The same senate that passed the first defeated the second. The Mecklenburg petition had not only a majority of 1,200 over the counter petition, but a majority of 300 of the white registered vote of the county.

What was the trouble? Was the Greensboro Presbyterian more influential than the Greensboro Standard? Or does the Greensboro Telegram, a paper with clear enough vision to see the right and courage enough to advocate it, claim the credit? Were Brothers Smith and Hodgins and their colleagues in Greensboro more eloquent and influential than Brothers Staggs and Howerton and their colleagues in Charlotte? Until these questions can be settled it is idle for the people to be asking, Where do we come in? "The people—let the people eat grass!"—Presbyterian Standard.

The Standard draws the comparison in a manner that would, indeed, be puzzling to a man who did not know the homeliness of the which. Guilford sent representatives to Raleigh who listened to the voice of their constituents. So did Mecklenburg. Guilford sent down a senator who would "cut the cable" if he found it necessary to serve his people. Mecklenburg did not. "Senatorial courtesy" glided the rest, as there were not Bob Glenns enough in the senate to say that the will of over three thousand white voters was entitled to more consideration than the private promise of one senator.

For La Grippe

Thomas Whitfield & Co., 250 Wash. ave., corner Jackson st., one of Chicago's oldest and most prominent druggists, recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for la grippe, as it not only gives a prompt and complete relief, but also counteracts any tendency of the la grippe to result in pneumonia. For sale by C. E. Holton.

The Texas tax commission bill, to revise the laws and draw one bill to cover all classes of state revenue, has become a law.

Notice.

The first edition of "The Empire of the South" having been exhausted, a second edition will be ready for distribution by or about March 10, 1899. It is a handsome volume of about 200 pages descriptive of the South and its vast resources, beautifully illustrated, and regarded by critics as the most complete production of its kind that has ever been published.

Persons wishing to secure this work will please enclose to the undersigned 25 cents per copy, which amount approximates the cost of delivery. Remittances may be made in stamps or otherwise.

Dangers of the Grip.

The greatest danger from La Grippe is of its resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for the grippe we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia which shows conclusively that this remedy is a certain preventive of this dangerous disease. It will cure la grippe in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by C. E. Holton.

Should Hygienic Journals Endorse 'Proprietary Remedies'?

BY G. H. MARTIN, M. D.

Physicians are frequently asked if in individual cases proprietary medicines are justly entitled to the sanction of the medical profession, the questioners assuming that it is probable a sweeping condemnation of such medicines will follow, this assumption being based upon the belief that physicians as a body have united to put a ban upon all proprietary remedies—the good, the bad and the indifferent—as a matter of protection to their own interests. Nothing could be farther from the truth than such an assumption, for every intelligent member of the profession and every unbiased medical and hygienic journal in the land is constantly on the lookout for meritorious compounds—any medicines which really cure—and no class are more willing to bestow just praise when such remedies are brought to light; and no class does more to make trustworthy medicines popular than do the health publications which bring the same to the notice of their readers throughout all parts of the country.

That the American Journal of Health has so frequently taken the initiative in directing attention to the genuine remedies is a matter of pride to us, and we shall continue to make known the desirable features of any medicine of worth which may be brought to our notice, whether the same be of a proprietary nature or otherwise. It is this principle which prompts us to mention a curative compound which has recently been the subject of very careful investigation on our part—a compound which is, unquestionably, deserving of commendation from every hygienic publication in the land. Reference is had to Hill's Balm, which is offered by J. J. Hill, of Greensboro, North Carolina, and which, we have found, possesses specific curative virtues in all cases of rheumatism, catarrh, piles in their various distressing forms, and all skin eruptions.

To withhold commendation of such a highly meritorious remedy as this, merely because the formula has not been spread upon the pages of our medical text books, would be not only manifestly absurd, but would be a gross injustice to our readers, who naturally seek these pages for information upon all matters pertaining to health; and to such readers we certainly owe prime allegiance. We write advisedly when we assign Hill's Balm to a place among the specifics which are absolutely to be depended upon in all cases coming within the scope of their claims. Having examined into the matter most thoroughly, we can conscientiously endorse it in the strongest manner, for investigation shows that the cures which follow its use are genuine and permanent cures which stand out in striking contrast to the merely palliative effects following the use of so many of the nostrums which flood the market. While we have never hesitated to expose the pretensions of the latter class of remedies, we are always ready to praise a really beneficial remedy such as Hill's Balm.

It is time people learned that neither physicians as a class nor health journals as a class indulge in a wholesale condemnation of proprietary medicines, and that when such remedies are commended that course is pursued in order that the public may be protected from ignorant and unscrupulous makers of "cure-alls" who are as ignorant of the qualities of the ingredients employed in their composition as they are of what the therapeutic effects will be upon the patient. It is the queer combinations put forth by the quack and the charlatan against which reputable hygienic publications warn their readers, and not the really meritorious proprietary medicines of which Hill's Balm is such a noteworthy example.

Where we have seen fit to expose the worthlessness of unscientifically compounded remedies in the past, such exposure was openly and fearlessly made. In this case we as frankly praise genuine merit in bestowing the editorial endorsement of the American Journal of Health upon Hill's Balm. Mr. Hill's address is 416 E. Church street, Greensboro, N. C.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides; no appetite; gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying Electric Bitters; and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim. No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store."

Opening of the Social Season and Inauguration of the Magnificent

New York & Florida Limited Service

JANUARY 16, 1899.

The opening of the Florida season will be signalized this year as usual by the placing in service of the "New York and Florida Limited" between New York and St. Augustine, Fla. This is acknowledged to be the finest train in the world, in its appointments, luxury and detail of finish, and the first of these trains was constructed by the Pullman company for the use of the President of the United States on official tours.

"The New York and Florida Limited" leaves New York daily except Sunday at 11:50 a. m., via the Pennsylvania Railroad, the Southern Railway, Florida Central & Peninsular R. R. and the Florida East Coast Railway, and reaches St. Augustine at 2:20 p. m. the following day, making the run, which exceeds 1,000 miles, in little more than twenty-four hours. No train has attracted so much attention, and its fame has been heralded wherever railroading is known. It is composed of Pullman compartment cars, each room being finished in different woods and supplied with private lavatory and toilet; Pullman drawing-room sleeping cars of the latest pattern and finish; a royal club car for the gentleman; an observation car with a handsome drawing room at its rear opening out to a wide platform; a library car, and dining car, in which the service and the cuisine rank with the finest New York trains. This "New York and Florida Limited" runs through solid to St. Augustine with the exception of one car which is detached at Columbia, S. C., and goes through to Aiken, which it reaches at 9:35 the next morning after leaving New York, and Augusta at 9:50. Brunswick and Jacksonville are conveniently reached by this train at 12 o'clock noon through the perfect connections afforded at Everett, Ga.

There are two other fine trains between New York and Florida via "The Florida Short Line," one the "Washington and Southwestern Vestibule Limited," leaving New York at 2:20 p. m. daily, and the "United States East Mail," leaving New York at 12:05 midnight. The former train carries through Pullman drawing room sleeping cars between New York, Jacksonville and Tampa, and also offers Pullman sleeping car service between New York and Augusta, Ga., with connections for Aiken, Brunswick and Jacksonville. The latter carries through drawing room sleeping cars between New York and Jacksonville, connecting with parlor car service to points on F. C. & P. R. R. and F. E. C. Ry. Dining cars are operated on all trains of the Southern Ry. "The Florida Short Line" in connection with the Florida East Coast Railway to Miami offers the most direct, quickest and delightful service to Nassau, Havana and Key West. For full information, reservations, etc., apply to J. L. Adams, G. E. A., F. C. & P. R. R., 333 Broadway, New York, or to A. S. Thwait, E. P. A., Southern Ry., 271 Broadway, New York.

SHADOWS ON THE WALL

When the room is tidy
Toys are put away,
Eyes are growing sleepy,
Sties are turning gray,
Comes the children's clamor
As they round me through
Fairy lore's exhausted
Sung each nursery song.
In the mellow lamplight
Enthusiasm's voice all
Whisper watch me making
Shadows on the wall

Through the happy silence
Rings their laughter low
As upon the wall three
Shadows come and go,
Nurse, unseen, unheeded,
Watches from the door,
Whisper the children's voices
Plead for just one more!

One by one they leave me,
Till I sit alone,
Seeing in the twilight
Shadows of my own,
Dreams in golden guise,
Till from heart to eyelids
Tears, unbidden, flow,
Happy, happy children!
Time has joys for all;
Only some fleeting
Shadows on the wall.

HOW HE GAINED COURAGE.

General Chaffee's Way of Giving a

Recruit Confidence.

A youth of 18 who was in the trenches at El Caney carrying a gun was so badly frightened under fire that he went flat on his face and was roundly kicked by his companions. General Chaffee came along and called to him. "Well, you're a fine soldier!" Then he looked at the boy's face and said: "I suppose you can't help it," he said. "It ain't so much your fault. I'd like to get hold of the fellow that took you into the army." By and by he put his hand on the boy's shoulder. "There isn't so much danger as you think for," said the general. "Now, you get up and take your gun and fight, and I'll stand here by you."

The boy got up, shaking like a leaf and fired his first shot pretty near straight into the air.

"That's pretty high," said the general. "Keep cool and try it again."

In three minutes that kid was fighting like a veteran and cool as a cucumber, and when he saw it the general started on.

"You're all right now, my boy," he said. "You'll make a good soldier."

"God bless you, sir," said the youngster. "You saved me from worse than death." And he was pretty close to crying when he said it.

After a while the order came to retire from the trench, and soldiers had to collar that kid and haul him away by the neck to get him to retreat with his company. And at that he'd got a bullet through the fleshy part of his shoulder an hour before. In the rest of the fighting there wasn't a better soldier in the company. —Chicago Journal.

Theatrical "Props."

Props comprise all the portable articles required in a play. Guns and pistols—which too often fail to go off at the critical moment—are props; leaves of bread, fowl, fruit, all made of a rough paper mache, are also props. We may also include those wondrous gobs, gobs, only seen on the stage, which make such a nondescript thing when they fall and bounce up like the boy, as among the achievements of the property man.

But it is at pantomime time that the individual is at his busiest. Big masks and make believe—sausages and vegetables, without which no pantomime would be complete, are mingled with fairy wands, garlands of artificial flowers, basket work frames for the accommodation of giants and other articles too numerous to mention.

How the right things are forthcoming at the right moment is one of the mysteries only known to property men. Had one of these useful members of the theatrical world the ability and inclination to write a book what an entertaining volume could he turn out! —Chambers' Journal.

Original if Not Accurate.

This, says The Scottish Leader, is a genuine extract from a schoolboy's recent "Essay on Nelson":

"Oh! Hadding, let me again, were the butefull words of a heroic mortal who won a grate battle with one eye and a wooden leg. Before the bloody context this motto was uttered by him:

"The queen expects every man to do his duty. When he died the queen met him in a boat St. Paul's and was buried. This is a marvelous lesson to me and all schoolboys. Do your duty to your pastors and masters and then even with a single leg you can say, 'with this simple thing I will do my duty.' As Nelson himself said, 'Even though you are only man you can do your duty.'"

Human Nature.

"You know," said the collector rather plaintively, "you said that you would pay me if I came today."

"Well," answered Mr. Bildew, "you must bear in mind that human nature is human nature. The best of us sometimes say things that we are sorry for."

—Washington Star

A SWELL.

"So in your last place you were valet to a count? When did you have to call him in the morning?"

"At half past 7."

"Call me at a quarter to 8!" —Pile-gende Blatter

AN EXCITED LAWYER

A CASE THAT WORKED HIM UP TO THE BURSTING POINT.

The Outrageous Conduct of Juror No. 6 and the Explanation, which Changed the Counsel's Anger to Limp Bewilderment.

"In my 30 years' experience as a practicing lawyer," said a well known member of the bar at the Lawyers' club the other day, "I don't believe I ever went through a more exciting trial than one I took part in out at Feshold, N. J. When I say exciting, I mean exciting for me, for I was the only one who appeared to be concerned about the conduct of the man who occupied the sixth seat in the jury box.

"The case was a civil action, and I represented the plaintiff. It was a small matter, and we were suing for only $500, but as my client happened to be a personal friend, and he was more anxious to establish a principle than to collect any money, I was out to win.

"The judge was a sedate individual, who almost most the time and the jury looked as though it had been drafted from the hayfields. I scored well for my client with the first witness and was looking out of the corner of my eye to see what effect the point had had on the jury, when I noticed the man in No. 6 scowling furiously at me. When I continued to make headway with the next witness, he shook his head, scowled and looked as though he'd like to eat me up. The rest of the jury-men kept watching him, and I began to think I was up against a pretty stiff proposition.

"Finally I threw a question at a witness, which if honestly answered I knew would establish our claim to damages. No. 6 evidently thought so, too, for he rose from his seat, shook his head vigorously at the judge, and leaning over the rail waited for the judge's decision, for by this time the defendant's counsel had made an objection.

"The judge ruled against me, and No. 6 fell back into his seat and laughed as though it was the funniest thing he had ever heard. I was mad and clean through by this time. Such outrageous conduct I had never seen in court.

"Your honor," I began protestingly.

"Go on with the case," roared his honor.

"But, sir," I began, "this is the most extraordinary—"

"Go on with the case," interrupted the judge once more, and seeing it was vain to protest I went on.

Well, this thing went on all through the trial. Every point I made brought a scowl to the face of No. 6. Every point my opponent made brought smiles to his face. When I summed up, he kept shaking his head vigorously and saying things in an ugly tone, but under his breath. Once he threw his hands up in protest, and I got so mad that I could have hauled him out of that box and thrashed him with pleasure.

"When the defense summed up, the fellow grinned with delight. He shook his head approvingly at all the lawyer said, and the lawyer indicated in abuse of me, he clapped his hands together as though he was dying to applaud. During the judge's charge he scowled and smiled alternately, according to which side his honor favored.

"Your honor," I said, "I have my indignation go on with the case."

"I never engaged in a better case than this. Rather than submit to such a barefaced steal I'll fight this case through every court in the state, and without a cent of fee too."

"The judge had finished by this time, and the jury had risen to go out. To my utter astonishment, No. 6 jumped over the rail of the jury box, and going over to where the defendant and his lawyer sat clapped the former on the shoulder and said in a loud voice, 'You'll win, and I'll be rich!'

"You'll win, and I'll be rich!'" I said indignantly. "You're rushing over to No. 6, I took him by the arm and wheeled him around.

"See here, sir, the jury has retired, and you might better be with them than talking to the defendant and his counsel."

"Why should I be with 'em?" he replied.

"Why, good heavens, man, can the jury deliberate while you're in the courtroom and they're elsewhere?"

"Don't know why not," he replied. "I ain't no juror."

"Then who the devil are you?" I demanded.

"He's my hired man," put in the defendant.

"Then what was he doing in the jury box?"

"Why, consarn it, there warn't another seat in the room," said the hired man. "Didn't suppose I was goin' ter stand up, did yer?"

"I went back to my seat, completely bewildered, and as I sat down the jury came in, having been out five minutes. They gave me the verdict, and I was truly the most astonished man in the state of New Jersey at that moment.

"I found out afterward that before I began active work in the case juror No. 6 had been sick for a week and that the other 11 jurors had been acting without him under instruction from the court."

An Honest Medicine for La Grippe.

George W. Waltz of South Gardner, Mo., says: "I have had the worst cough, cold, chills and grip and have taken lots of trash of no account but profit to the vender. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the only thing that has done any good whatever. I have used one 50-cent bottle and the chills, cold and grip have all left me. I congratulate the manufacturers of an honest medicine." For sale by C. E. Holton.

As the season of the year when pneumonia, la grippe, sore throat, coughs, colds, catarrh, bronchitis and lung troubles are to be guarded against, nothing "is a fine substitute," will "answer the purpose," or "is just as good" as One Minute Cough Cure. That is the one infallible remedy for all lung, throat or bronchial troubles. Instat vigorously on having it if "something else" is offered you. Howard Gardner.

Remarkable Rescue.

Mrs. Michael Curtin, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine would cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefited from first dose. She continued its use and after taking six bottles, found herself sound and well; now does her own housework, and is as well as she ever was.—Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at C. E. WINE OF CARDUI
Woman Knows Woman.

ZURICH, KAN., Jan. 31.
I used Wine of Cardui for nervousness and weakness in the womb. After taking one bottle I was well again. I am a midwife and always recommend Wine of Cardui to my lady friends during pregnancy and after birth as a tonic. Every lady who takes it finds that it does even more than is claimed for it.
MRS. V. M. ROISVERT.

Wine of Cardui

Nobody knows woman like woman. Men go to medical colleges, study books and listen to lectures. They learn indirectly of the diseases of women, but they are men and can never fully understand the ailments, the sufferings, the agonies of mothers, wives and sisters. A woman knows. Mrs. Roisvert knows. She has passed through the trials and tribulations of her sex. She has been near by when her sisters suffered. She has seen them relieved and cured with Wine of Cardui. Is it any wonder she recommends it? Is it any wonder that thousands of other women recommend it? They know. They have actual experience to prompt them. They spread the tidings from mouth to mouth, telling how Wine of Cardui helps young girls, helps the weak of all ages, helps and cures all womanly ills.

We have been very reliably informed of an unusual wedding which took place in this county some time since. A man and woman were married and a preacher performed the ceremony. Nothing unusual about that; but the unusual part was that there was a very good crowd in attendance and, with the exception of the officiating pastor, every one present was red-headed.

"POPULAR" is the name of a line of ladies' oxfords made by the Hamilton-Brown Shoe Co., of St. Louis, one of the largest shoe houses in the world, doing a business of five to six million dollars annually. This line is rightly named the "popular," as it is beyond doubt one of the best and most popular lines of ladies' low shoes in the country. Scores of ladies here in Greensboro have worn this make for the last three or four years and positively won't buy any other kind when they can get the "popular." One reason why these oxfords are "popular" is because they fit and "feel good" the first time they are worn. For a neat, dressy shoe that will do for both street and home wear we recommend the new Coln toe, while if you want only solid comfort regardless of appearance we can give you the "popular" in regular wide bottom, low heeled common sense style.
